SBA Announces Appointment of Brad Currie as Senior Area Manager

Augusta, Maine – Today, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) announced the appointment of Brad Currie as Senior Area Manager of the SBA's Portland office. Mr. Currie will be responsible for managing SBA's programs and initiatives throughout Maine's Cumberland and York counties.

"We are very fortunate to have someone with Brad's experience and knowledge join our team and assist us with serving the small business community in southern Maine," said Amy Bassett, district director for the SBA Maine District Office. "I would encourage members of the business community, economic development partners and small business service providers in Cumberland and York counties to reach out to Brad and learn how SBA programs and services may benefit their customers and clients," added Bassett.

"I am honored to be selected for this position and look forward to working with our resource partners, lenders, local governments and economic development offices to support entrepreneurship and help small businesses start, grow and succeed," said Mr. Currie.

Prior to joining the Maine district office, Mr. Currie worked in the SBA Colorado district office where he served as an Economic Development Specialist, Veteran Business Development Officer, SCORE Liaison, Assistant Public Information Officer and initially as the Administrative Officer in 2013. In addition, Mr. Currie is a Retired U.S. Army Reservist.
